From 1 August 2023 to 31 July 2024

Charity name: University of the Third Age - York

Charity registration number: 1007843

Objectives and Activities

	SORP reference
Summary of the purposes of the charity as set out in its governing document	Para 1.17	The objects of the u3a are to advance the education and, in particular, the education of older people and those who are retired from full time work by all means, including associated activities conducive to learning and personal development, in York and its surrounding locality.
Summary of the main activities in relation to those purposes for the public benefit, in particular, the activities, projects or services identified in the accounts.	Para 1.17 and 1.19	We provide a wide range of classes and activities for members, that are led by our members on a self-help basis. The classes, study trips and other activities cover a wide variety of subjects and recreational activities and benefit older people in the York area by giving them the opportunity to advance their learning and general wellbeing.
Statement confirming whether the trustees have had regard to the guidance issued by the Charity Commission on public benefit	Para 1.18	In planning our activities for the year, the Trustees have had regard to the Charity Commission guidance on public benefit.

Achievements and Performance

	SORP reference
Summary of the main achievements of the charity, identifying the difference the charity's work has made to the circumstances of its beneficiaries and any wider benefits to society as a whole.	Para 1.20	Our membership numbers have continued to increase from 1675 at 31 July 2023 to 1709 at 31 July 2024. We provide members with both face-to-face activities and hybrid meetings using Zoom. We continue to provide meeting rooms at the Friends Meeting House in York which are fully equipped, including the use of hearing loops. The hall we use for our monthly talks at the Central Methodist Church is similarly equipped. We have continued to develop the activities on offer. Our international and UK travel provide enriching opportunities for travel in congenial company, which is particularly valued by single members. We produce a bi-monthly newsletter distributed to our members using email and follow this up every month with reminders of up-coming events. We have an extensive website. We offer a range of activities that promote health and wellbeing, these include group activities, talks and social events to encourage members to come together to exercise and share knowledge and experiences. We reduce social isolation by providing ways for retired people to meet.

Financial Review

Review of the charity's financial position at the end of the period	Para 1.21	During the year to 31 July 24 we reported a surplus of £20,750 as compared to £3,180 for the year to 31 July 2023. An increase of £17,570. Our receipts for financial year to 31 July 2024 were £150,670 compared to £107,657 received in the financial year ending 31st July 2023. An increase of £43,013 (40.23%). This was mostly due to the increase in membership fees received in July 2024 for the year 2024/25. Our payments for the financial year to 31 July 2024 were £130,220 compared to £104,477 paid in the financial year ended 31 July 2023. An increase of £25,743 (24.64%). This was mostly due to a planned stepped increase in the cost of the rent for the u3a centre. This was catered for by the increase in membership fees.
Statement explaining the policy for holding reserves stating why they are held	Para 1.22	We aim to retain as a general reserve an amount which is the equivalent of no more than one year's planned expenditure, plus 18 months rent for the u3a centre (the rental termination period).
Amount of reserves held	Para 1.22	We held cash just short of £124K at the end of the year.
Reasons for holding zero reserves	Para 1.22	Not applicable.
Details of fund materially in deficit	Para 1.24	No funds in deficit.
Explanation of any uncertainties about the charity continuing as a going concern	Para 1.23	No uncertainties given cash position and viability of the organisation.

Additional information (optional)

You may choose to include further statements where relevant about:

The charity's principal sources of funds (including any fundraising)	Para 1.47	The principal source of funds is members' subscriptions and contributions to the cost of group activities made by their members.
	Para 1.46	We do not make investments.

Investment policy and objectives including any social investment policy adopted
A description of the principal risks facing the charity	Para 1.46	Most of our risks are covered by insurance. Our main remaining risk is the potential high cost of any temporary premises we may have to hire to undertake our educational activities, if our current premises were not available for an extended period. We are holding reserves to cover this risk.

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE - YORK

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE THIRD AGE - YORK

I report to the trustees on my examination of the accounts of The University of the Third Age - York (the charity) for the year ended 31st July 2024 which are set out on pages 1 to 2.

Responsibilities and basis of report

As the charity trustees of the charity you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act 2011 ('The Act').

I report in respect of my examination of the Trustee's accounts carried out under section 145 of the 2011 Act and in carrying out my examination I have followed all the applicable Directions given by the charity Commissioner under section 145(5)(b) of the 2011 Act.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination. I confirm that no material matters have come to my attention in connection with the examination giving me cause to believe that in any material respect:

- (1) accounting records were not kept in respect of the Trust as required by section 130 of the Act; or
- (2) the accounts do not accord with those records; or

I have no concerns and have come across no other matters in connection with the examination to which attention should be drawn in this report in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
